Robert Goff: An Etcher in the Wake of Whistler

29 November 2011 to 29 April 2012

(closed 23 to 27 April)

Brighton Museum

Prints & Drawings Gallery

Free

See this new small display of etchings by local artist Robert Charles Goff (1837-1922). The display is a rare opportunity to see about 50 works by the Hove-based etcher Goff who was one of the first etchers in Britain to be influenced by J.A.M. Whistler and the Etching Revival. On display are local views of Brighton, Hove and Sussex, as well as striking pictures from his travels in other parts of Britain, Italy, Egypt and Japan.
