

Orfelinda Charur de Sa'ade May- 2003

(Quite hard to hear due to background noise)

- Talking about Katrina's mother and father moving over to Mexico
- Talks about which children were born in Bethlehem and which in Russia.
- Travelled by boat- 1 month and a half of travel
- Her husband went to a very strict British school
- Talks about living in Russia and the death of the Tsar- they were rich before money became worthless. States how the Bolsheviks wanted to kill them yet they managed to get onto a train. They used their jewellery to pay their way.
- Talk about how women used to marry at 13/14 years of age.
