Meaning in life study PART II

Welcome to PART 2 (out of 3) of our study on the experience of meaning in life. We want to see how people experience their lives as having or not having meaning across time. You will be shown several sets of statements about how you feel at the present moment. You will be asked to specify to what extent you agree or disagree with them. There are no right or wrong answers; we would simply like to know what you think. Also, don't spend too long on any one item; often, the first answer that comes to mind is the best.

Please remember that credits will be awarded upon completion of the final questionnaire (Part III). Each of the 3 parts will be sent for completion a month apart from each other. Part I takes around 20-30 minutes. Part II and Part III take 10 minutes each.

Giving consent

We remind you that your participation is voluntary and you are free to withdraw from the study at any time without giving an explanation. All data we collect from you will be treated as confidential and will only be accessed by the research team. You can withdraw your data from the study at any point before data analysis has commenced. At the end of the study, you will be debriefed and the aims and purposes of our research will be fully explained.

By ticking the box below you acknowledge this and consent to proceed with the study
